VILLAGE OF ROBBINS – ORDINANCE NO. 6-27-23 C

---

The Corporate Authority of the Village of Robbins, Cook County, Illinois, hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION I. AUXILIARY POLICE.

- A. Establishment of position. Upon the request of the Chief of Police, the mayor may appoint, with the advice and consent of the village board, auxiliary police officers to serve as described in this section. Before the appointment of an auxiliary police officer, the person's fingerprints shall be taken, and no person shall be appointed as an auxiliary police officer if that person has been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude. The mayor with the advice and consent of the village board, may terminate appointment as an auxiliary police officer at any time.
- B. Appointment. Auxiliary police officers shall be appointed or removed from time to time by the mayor with the advice and consent of the village board as defined by this code. An auxiliary police officer will be employed on a part-time basis, as needed, and shall not function on a full-time basis. An auxiliary police officer shall be considered an "at will" employee subject to removal at any time. An auxiliary police officer shall not be under the jurisdiction of the Village Fire and Police Commission.
- C. Status. Auxiliary police officers shall not be "conservators of the peace" and shall only carry firearms while on duty, with the permission of the chief of police. Before performing such duties, auxiliary police officers shall receive training in the use of weapons and other police procedures appropriate for the exercise of the powers conferred upon them under this section. Before being permitted to carry a firearm, however, an auxiliary police officer must complete the state certified 40-Hour Mandatory Firearms Training Course as provided under 50 ILCS 710/2. Auxiliary police officers shall not be considered to be members of the regular police department and shall not supplement members of the regular police department of the village in the performance of their assigned and normal duties except as otherwise provided herein.
- D. Uniforms and Identification symbol. The uniform and identification symbols worn by an auxiliary police officer shall be different and distinct from those uniforms and symbols used by regular members of the Robbins Police Department and shall be selected and chosen by the Police Chief.

- E. Firearm. Auxiliary police officers shall not carry firearms except with the permission of the chief of police and while in uniform and in the performance of their duties. At no time will Auxiliary police officers be approved to carry firearms outside of the corporate limits of the village while working.
- F. Training. An auxiliary police officer must be able to successfully complete and pass all requirements for an auxiliary police officer as administered by the State Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board and as required by the village. An auxiliary police officer may be required to attend additional training and Departmental firearms qualifications as deemed necessary by the Police Chief and/or his designee. An auxiliary police officer will be expected to pay for any and all training or testing that is not reimbursable.
- G. Supervision. An auxiliary police officer shall perform duties as deemed necessary by the Police Chief to serve the law enforcement needs of the village. Auxiliary police officers shall, at all times during the performance of their duties, be subject to the direction and control of the Police Chief and/or his designee.
- H. Compensation. An auxiliary police officer will be paid the hourly compensation for services as provided and authorized by the Village Board of Trustees. An auxiliary police officer will be expected to pay for his or her own uniforms, firearm, training, and other equipment necessary to perform assigned duties.
- I. Powers and duties. Auxiliary police officers shall only be assigned to perform the following duties in the village:
1. To aid or direct traffic within the municipality,
  2. To aid in control of natural or man-made disasters, and
  3. To aid in case of civil disorder as directed by the chief of police.

When it is impractical for members of the regular police department to perform those normal and regular police duties, however, the chief of police of the regular police department may assign auxiliary police officers to perform those normal and regular police duties, except as prohibited by law; and to perform such other duties as are authorized by law.

- J. Residency requirement. An auxiliary police officer must be a citizen of the United States and shall reside within the boundaries of the counties of Cook, Lake, DuPage and Will.

K. Qualifications.

(1.) An auxiliary police officer must be of temperate habits, of sound health and must be physically able to perform assigned duties. An auxiliary police officer must provide fingerprints, must submit to and successfully complete a background check and drug testing. An auxiliary police officer may not have an arrest and/or conviction for a Felony crime or other crimes involving moral turpitude. Must possess a valid state driver's license and firearms owner's identification card (FOID).

(2.) An auxiliary police officer must be at least 21 years of age. An auxiliary police officer must have at least 20/100 vision correctable to 20/20 and be void of color blindness; must have a high school diploma or G.E.D., college preferred; must have the ability to read, write, speak, and understand the English language.

SECTION 2. That if any section, paragraph, clause, phrase, or part of this ordinance is for any reason held invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this ordinance, and the application of these provisions to any person or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 3. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed insofar as they conflict herewith.

SECTION 4. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage as provided by law.

ADOPTED this 27th day of June, 2023, by the affirmative vote of the corporate authorities, as follows:

AYES: 6 : Dyson, Maxey, Harper, Robinson, Jackson, Collier
